

Presentation Requirements

Each presentation should include the following:

- the question your group investigated
- a drawing to show how your group set up your materials
- the steps your group took to carry out your investigation
- a data table of your group's results
- at least one bar graph of your group's results
- a claim that answers your group's question
- at least one energy model