

Science Challenge

Recently, there have been a number of car crashes in the city of Smithsonville. The Safety Council of Smithsonville needs scientists to help figure out how to make the city roads safer. They know that your class has been learning how energy moves and changes in collisions. They have hired you to find out what affects the motion energy of a car in a crash. The Safety Council will use the results of your investigations to make their roads safer.